Bilet nr. 12

Render the content of the story: Using a foreign language

A friend of mine once told me of his first efforts to speak Japanese. He was working in an American company in Tokyo where all communication in the workplace was conducted in English, so he had no pressing need to learn the language. His wife, however, was taking Japanese lessons and passed on to him what she had learnt. The first few times he aired his Japanese in public, his efforts were met with politeness but he nevertheless got the impression he was doing something wrong. Quite some time went by before one of his Japanese colleagues plucked up the courage to tell him he spoke Japanese 'like a woman' and explained that often different vocabulary is used for the same objects depending on whether a man or a woman is speaking.

Japanese is not the only language which makes such distinctions, and, although the vocabulary doesn't change, research shows that gender can affect speech patterns in English too.

- Tell the text briefly.
- How did the man learn Japanese?
- Was he satisfied with his Japanese?
- What was wrong in his using of Japanese?

« Voilà maintenant plus de 10 jours que le volcan Popocatepetl, «la montagne qui fume», inquiète les Mexicains. Ce volcan est en éruption. Il n'arrête pas de cracher des cendres et de la vapeur. Le Popocatepetl est un des volcans les plus actifs du Mexique. C'est aussi un des plus hauts, à plus de 5 452 mètres d'altitude, il domine la ville de Mexico. Ses éruptions sont dites « explosives ». Elles projettent des cendres dans le ciel comme des petites explosions. » (source : <http://1jourlactu.com>)

In the text below some lines are correct but some have a word that should not be there.

Indicate the correct lines with a tick (✓). For the incorrect lines, write the words that should not be there.

Shakespeare

- 1 Among all of writers in history, Shakespeare is perhaps the most
- 2 well-known. Many of the plays he wrote are still being performed regularly
- 3 in many of countries in the world. Over the years there has been a
- 4 lot of disagreement among the scholars and experts about the meanings
- 5 of Shakespeare's plays; some of the books about him even suggest
- 6 that he didn't really write all the plays that have his name. There has
- 7 been a lot of much research into his life and work but few of the theories
- 8 about him can be proved. A few people have even said that Shakespeare
- 9 was really a woman but there is little of support for this theory!
- 10 Many visitors go to Shakespeare's birthplace in Stratford in England.

This is a thriller set in San Francisco and stars Clint Eastwood as Inspector Harry Callahan. He is known as Dirty Harry because he gets all the tough cases and uses his own special methods. The film opens with a young woman swimming in a pool on the top of a tall building. A gunman shoots and kills her from the top of a nearby skyscraper. Dirty Harry is given the case and he finds a note from the killer, demanding $100.000. The killer, who calls himself Scorpio, threatens to kill again if he doesn't receive the money.

The mayor wants to pay the money but Callahan disagrees. As the money is not paid, Scorpio kills a young black boy. He escapes a trap set by Callahan and kidnaps a little girl. This time he asks for $200.000. Callahan almost manages to trap Scorpio and wounds him with a knife. Later on, he tracks him to a football stadium and forces Scorpio to tell him where the girl is. The girl is found but she is dead. However, Scorpio is released because of the way Callahan got his confession.

Even though the case is closed, Callahan tracks Scorpio waiting for his next move. Scorpio then hijacks a school bus full of young children. After an exciting battle, the inspector kills the criminal. It is an exciting and sometimes brutal film.
